3. EVIDENCE OF APPLICANT'S COMPETENCE:

Unless you wish to have additional categories added to your ICC, the renewal process is simply a paper exercise. Your ICC will normally be renewed with the same categories validated as your expiring certificate. There is normally no requirement to produce evidence of competence for these categories. Please tick the relevant boxes in the table below to indicate the categories your existing certificate is valid for.

If you require any additional categories, please indicate which and provide evidence of your competence for those categories as detailed on the RYA website at www.rya.org.uk/go/icc-evidence. This also applies if your existing ICC is valid for power driven vessels up to 10m LOA. Your new certificate will be issued with this length limit unless you provide acceptable evidence to demonstrate your competence for larger vessels. If you are renewing a certificate with the inland waters category that was issued prior to 1st April 1999, the category will only be revalidated if the RYA has evidence you have passed the CEVNI test.
